ST ANDREWS HOTEL FITZROY

SERVING FITZROY SINCE 1854

FAMILY OWNED AND OPERATED SINCE 1996

Above is an illustration of a photo of the Hotel taken near to its establishment in 1854. The Hotel was originally named the "Hawkins St Andrews Hotel".

In the late 1800's a fire tore through the building and it wasn't until the early 1900's that it was rebuilt and named as just the "St Andrews Hotel".

In 1987, a pioneer in the themed Hotel game, Betty Jenkins, took a tired and run-down St Andrews Hotel and together with her pet monkey and cockatoo renamed it as patrons knew it for over 30 years, as The Pumphouse Hotel.

In 2017, a re-brand of the Hotel brought us back to its original roots with the new logo incorporating the ancient legend of the Celtic "Tree of Life". The tree, amongst other things, is the symbol of rebirth, strength and friendship which are all qualities the Hotel possesses now and has done in its 150-year history.
